WORLD UNIVERSITY SERVICES

The college WUS team participated in the General Body Meeting at Shahid Bhagat Singh College on 14 December 2017. The agenda of the meeting was to plan and participate in the decision making of the WUS university level activities for the year. A week long employability workshop of 25 hours was held between 5 March 2018 to 10 March 2018, during the mid-semester break, by WUS in association with B.A. Programme students and Sambhawana Foundation, Bangalore and Labour Net, Delhi. The workshop was offered to 53 students, of which 43 students were given certificates for successful completion of the programme. The course was based on a survey of the difficulties students face while entering work sites. They were also offered an experiential approach to learning the soft skills expected in work places. Saumya Gaur, Anjali and Riddhima were nominated as student members of WUS for 2017-18

National Workshop on Scope of Lyrical Writing in Contemporary Cinema

Kasak, the B.A Program society marked the National Workshop on Scope of Lyric Writing in Contemporary Cinema on 21st September 2019 at Mata Sahib Kaur auditorium. The workshop was further followed by numerous cultural events afterwards.

The introductory address was given by Mrs Praveshika Mishra, who welcomed the guest for a friendly and educative interaction with students. Commencing with the event, Dr Sagar, an Indian lyricist and music composer shared his knowledge over the history of lyrical and song writing in Bollywood. Startling the young minds, he presented an overview to the song writing process while incorporating one of his own poems about 'Adhura pyar'. Thereafter, the chief guest Mr Shailesh Awasthi, Assistant Commissioner of Madhya Pradesh alongside a poet shared his own rich understanding over poetry and artistry skills. He recited one of his works, in accordance to his passion for words. In great numbers the students attended the event. Mr Himanshu the next guest, manifested to share a motivational speech about life in common. Acknowledging and inspiring the teenaged perceptions. Dr. Iffat Zarrin, a renowned poet and Professor at Mata Sundri College was shared a piece of her work with the audience. On this account, Inklings volume 3 was released, research club inaugural ceremony was launched as well. This was followed by the badging ceremony of Kasak office bearers and Inklings Editor by the distinguished guests. Principal Dr. Harpreet Kaur gave the closing address to the interactive section allowing the commencement of cultural programs.

Beginning with a classical piece on Ganesh vandana the event proceeded to varied competing rounds of selections being ramp walk, showcasing strengths in areas of their expertise like dancing, aerobics, stagecraft covering various social issues. There were several supporting performances, namely Bhangra, musical delight by the music society.

Coming to the end, an award distribution took place where concluding remarks were given by Dr. Lokesh Kumar Gupta.

2. Textile Designing-

India, besides being a leading manufacturer of the oldest known textile in the world, has a rich heritage of textiles with each state having its treasure of distinct styles of prints, senses of colour, designs, embroideries and handloom textiles. This course is specially designed to develop the senses of colour, designing skills, textiles science, embroidery skills, fashion terminologies and aesthetics in students.

Fashion design is the art of application of design and aesthetics or natural beauty to clothing and accessories. Fashion design is influenced by cultural and social latitudes, and has varied over time and place. Textile design is essentially the process of creating designs for woven, knitted or printed fabrics or surface ornamented fabrics. Textile designers are involved with the production of these designs
