FROM THE PRINCIPAL'S DESK

On the 52nd Annual Day Celebration of Mata Sundri College for Women I feel both, honoured and humbled to welcome our esteemed guests. I welcome our Chief Guest, respected Sardar K.C. Singh, Former Indian Ambassador to U.A.E. and Iran; while words cannot suffice his accomplishments yet the occasion requires a short introduction. S. K. C. Singh joined the Indian Foreign Service in 1974. During his illustrious career, he served under different capacities in the Indian Posts and Missions in Cairo, New York and Ankara. He was the Deputy Secretary to the President of India from 1983-87. He also held several senior positions including that of Joint Secretary for Administration, Head of Consular, Passport and Visa Division. He was Ambassador to the U.A.E. from 1999-1993 and to Iran from 2003-2005. After his return, he took up critical positions as Additional Secretary, International Organisations and as Coordinator for Counter-terrorism. His stint as Secretary of Economic Relations till his retirement in May 2008 was notable.

I accord a very warm welcome to our Guest of Honour S. Manjinder Singh Sirsa who is holding multiple positions in different arenas with ease and competence. He is President, DSGMC and the second time - MLA, Rajouri Garden (Delhi Assembly) since April 2017 till date. Earlier he was the General Secretary of DSGMC since 2013 to March 2019. He is also the National Spokesperson of Shiromani Akali Dal Party. Since S. Manjinder Singh Sirsa has taken over, DSGMC is meticulously planning a flurry of activities to make the 550th Prakash Purab a memorable one that include conferences, lectures, Kirtan Samagams and Publications. His major concern is to attach the youth with our culture and contribute in a positive manner.

We also welcome our Special Guest, Dr. Payal Mago Joint Dean of Colleges, Joint Dean Academic Affairs and Projects and Principal, Saheed Rajguru College of Applied Science for Women (University of Delhi).

I warmly welcome S. Harmeet Singh Kalka who is General Secretary of DSGMC. I extend my warm welcome to the members of our Parent Body, Bibi Ranjeet Singh Kaur, Senior Vice-President DSGMC, who is the women's representative in the august body; S. Kulwant Singh Baath, Vice President, DSGMC and S. Harvinder Singh K.P., Joint Secretary, DSGMC.

The Chairman of our Governing Body, Sardar Vikramjit Singh Sahney is the President, World Punjabi Organisation and was appointed as President, International Chamber of Commerce, Paris. In recognition of his philanthropic pursuits, Mr. Sahney has been honoured with one of the highest civilian awards 'Padma Shri' by the Former President of India, Smt. Pratibha Patil and International Peace Award by the Former President of Mauritius, Sir Anerood Jugnauth.

I welcome S. Pritpal Singh Sawhney, Treasurer, College Governing Body. I also welcome Members of Governing Body and other distinguished guests for gracing the occasion.

Since I have taken over the responsibility as Principal of MSC in November 2018, I have focused on fostering all-around growth of the college facilitating multi-stakeholder partnerships. Our aim is to embolden the students to embark on their journey of life with confidence, competence and caliber. We stimulate academic environment towards excellence through dialogic process, create enabling environment for teaching-learning and promote culture of critical thinking. The collective effort of the faculty and non-teaching staff is to continuously raise the academic standards, disseminate values of Truth and Truthful Living and promote our vibrant traditional culture. Quality culture is accrued in all our activities. I hereby present the detailed report for the Academic Session 2018 – 2019.

MILESTONES

1st INTERNATIONAL SEMINAR

The 1st International Seminar on The Socio-Cultural Study of Agriculture was organized from 15th - 16th March 2019. The Inaugural Session started with the college prayer and lighting of the lamp followed by floral welcome of all the dignitaries. Principal, Dr Harpreet Kaur welcomed the esteemed guests who included the keynote speaker Prof. Ghanshyam Lal Devra, Chief Guest Ms. Dakshita Das (Additional Secretary, Ministry of Finance), Guest of Honour, Dr. A.S. Narang (Former Registrar and Professor Pol. Sc., IGNOU). Professor Ashok Vishandas (Program Director IIPA) delivered the Presidential Address. The Principal's speech emphasized the importance of agricultural sector, the challenges faced by the farmers and the need to attach the farmers to our traditional values. Message of Chief Patron S. Vikramjit Singh Sahney was read out to the audience. Prof. G.L. Devra spoke of the historically overlooked role of Bania community in the field of cultivation. Ms. Dakshita Das discussed the growing gap between farmers and urban consumers and urged the students to work with NGOs and policy makers to resolve such problems. Prof. A.S. Narang highlighted the continued oppression of farmers before and during the British Raj. Prof. Ashok Vishandas, in his Presidential Address discussed the need for a political and socio-cultural analysis of the farmer's plight from an international perspective. More than hundred papers by Teachers, Research Scholars and students were received. First day of the seminar saw five technical sessions along with two parallel sessions. On the second day Arun Bhowmick, traced the depiction of farmers through paintings from all over the world and a documentary session highlighted the plight of landless people. The need to inculcate values contained in Gurbani to the farmers that would be a remedy to their present day problems was discussed in a session. The Valedictory Session witnessed dignitaries from the field of Agricultural Research like Prof. Sucha Singh Gill, Prof. S.R.S. Ghuman and Mr. Charan Singh, Punjab and Sind Bank. Last session of the second day had a research paper award ceremony where trophies and certificates were awarded by the Governing Body Members.

NCWEB

The session began with the Orientation Day programme held on 12th August 2018. On 21st October 2018 a number of competitions like Poster making, Rangoli, Extempore, Shabad Kirtan, Best out of Waste etc. were organised and students actively participated in all the events.

Annual Sports Day and Cultural Programme were held on 6th January 2019. Prof. Avinash Singh was the Chief Guest for this programme and he addressed the gathering with an encouraging talk on women's empowerment.

Our students from NCWEB participated in competitions organised by Mata Sundri College (Regular). They also participated and won prizes in other colleges. An orientation session on "Apprenticeship and Employment Awareness for NCWEB students" was held in our college. The aim was to create awareness about jobs and apprenticeship among candidates for employment. The NCWEB e-magazine Aparajita was also launched this year. The series of events for the session came to a close with our college hosting fourteen other colleges of NCWEB at a Cultural event organized on 23rd March 2019. Dr. Harpreet Kaur gave an encouraging speech to the students emphasizing the importance of women and their education in society. Prof. Rajiv Gupta, Dean Students' Welfare, University of Delhi graced the occasion. Dr. Uma Shankar's, Deputy Director NCWEB, presence at the event inspired the young students. The Guest of Honour was Perna Shrimali, a renowned classical dancer with a number of national and international performances to her credit. The 36th Annual Day function of NCWEB, Mata Sundri College was organised with great joy and success along with the farewell of final year B.Com and B.A.

students on the 7th of April 2019. The programme was graced by the presence of our esteemed guest, Bibi Ranjeet Kaur, Senior Vice-President DSGMC, a social activist and a student counselor and Dr. Harpreet Kaur, Principal, Mata Sundri College for Women. Prize distribution and cultural programmes were the highlights of the day.

With immense pride I would like to acknowledge the contribution of our parent body, Delhi Sikh Gurdwara Management Committee and the College Governing Body in all our academic and cultural endeavors. Their unhindered support has always encouraged us to be the best in whatever we do. Next I would like to thank our qualified and talented teaching staff and skilled and capable non-teaching staff for working hard throughout the year to make this establishment a success. Last but not the least I extend my thanks to the bright and enthusiastic students for achieving excellence in various fields and adding this year as another illustrious chapter in the history of Mata Sundri College for Women. I am looking forward to another great year of brilliance and wish us all the very best for the future. It is my belief and also my promise that together we would be able to make this journey illustrious and take the college to new heights of success.

Principal,

Dr. Harpreet Kaur
