Sri Guru Granth Sahib: An Introduction

Sri Guru Granth Sahib incorporates the universal message of brotherhood of mankind. It was compiled in 1604 by the Fifth Guru of Sikhs, Guru Arjan Dev Ji and in 1708 the Tenth Guru, Guru Gobind Singh ji bestowed the divine seat of Guruship to the holy Granth. The Granth is a repository of deep spiritual, mystical and philosophical ideologies, which have been beautifully rendered in a poetic and musical manner. It is a confluence of the enriched knowledge of the bani of six Gurus, fifteen Bhagats, eleven Bhattas and four more contributors, who were very close to the Gurus. Their divine hymns have been expressed in the Granth without any disparity of caste, creed, religion or profession. It has amalgamated into its core fabric a deep spiritual thought, history, mythology and a huge treasury of linguistic inheritance of over five centuries, which not only is universal, but eternal as well.
