

Webinar on Impact on COVID 19 in India: A Perspective in collaboration with Department of Political Science

The IQAC and the Department of Political Science jointly organised a webinar on Impact of COVID 19 in India: A Perspective on June 10, 2020. Prof. Amita Singh, Chairperson of the Special Centre for Disaster Research , JNU and Prof Badrul Alam (Retd) from the Department of Political Science Jamia Milia Islamia University were speakers on the occasion. Looking at the impact of COVID 19 from various dimensions, the speakers talked about how the pandemic is creating a paradigm shift that is realigning every system and every aspect of our lives. Looking at different dimensions of the crisis they focused on the impact the pandemic would have on India's relations with other countries and also the country's preparedness to deal with the crisis.