To sensitize youngsters towards creating an inclusive environment for all individuals irrespective of their appearances, a workshop was organized on Body Image Concerns in Young Adults by Psychology Department on December 6, 2019.

Report on Workshop on Body Image Concerns in Young Adults

A Counselling Initiative was taken up by the Department of Psychology, Mata Sundri College, in association with IQAC. A Workshop was conducted on a very prevalent issue: "Body Image Concerns in Young Adults". The session was held on the 6 February 2019 at 1 PM in Mata Gujri Hall, and was facilitated by Dr. Garima Kumar and Dr. Pooja Jaggi. About 70 students from the BA (Hons) courses such as Philosophy, Political Science and Mathematics were present and participated in this Workshop.

The session commenced with Dr. Garima questioning one's own perception of an ideal body image, and how one sees oneself. The concept that the actual physical appearance of a person is different from the 'perceived appearance' was put forth with the help of a classic phrase, "Mirror, mirror on the wall; who's the fairest of them all ". The very fundamental question; what does one's mirror tell them - resulted in varied responses from students but all of them pointed to the deep rooted societal representation of an 'ideal body'. The idea of how body image develops with time was discussed, by picking up examples from various experiences shared by the audience. Statistics were shared that depicted a sharp increase in body image concerns in both Male and females over the years. This helped to bring home the point that having concerns about one's body image were a pervasive phenomenon among young adults everywhere across the world and it was absolutely normal to have questions and apprehensions about the issue.

The role of the media, in influencing one's ideologies about the same, is discussed. Students shared their concerns of how by not promoting body positivity, and instilling unhealthy ideals of looking at oneself, media has been harming the well-being of so many people, directly or indirectly. For example, Dr. Pooja Jaggi highlighted how certain diet plans have become a 'fad' in the Western culture and these are being 'followed' in India as well. A lot of brands and magazines openly demonstrate fake standards of beauty; of how one should look physically. Most of the people however don't know how much editing and photoshop all that media goes through. Due to these factors, a lot of youngsters fall prey to maintaining unhealthy standards, and thus are on the onset to eating and lifestyle disturbances. Students also shared concerns about societal and parental pressures to conform to certain idealized standards of beauty and sought clarification of ways to deal with these. The session concluded on a very positive note, Dr. Garima Kumar emphasized ways in which body positivity can be encouraged and how it could be promoted starting now; one should embrace all sizes, and body types without considering any one as a 'perfect' or 'ideal' body size/type; unhealthy representations by media should be openly challenged. Ways of making a conscious effort not to indulge in or falling prey to 'fat talk' and promoting body satisfaction and boosting one's self esteem were discussed with students. Students were also made aware of policies, brands and people who have helped in bringing about this positive change in mindset of people. Techniques to enhance body positivity were highlighted. Thus, seeing one's own self in a positive way, being able to appreciate oneself and others as a whole person, promoting body positivity, and high self-esteem in themselves and others around them is something all the students learned. Sharing of concerns in an collegial space with the facilitators helped students to open up about their problems in an uninhibited manner. Overall, the workshop was a great success.

International Webinar “Experiences of ‘Engaging with Diverse Communities and Key Leanings” was organized by IQAC on June 8th, 2020.

Report on International Webinar “Experiences of Engaging with Diverse Communities and Key Leanings”

Convener & Moderator: Dr. Garima Kumar (Dept. of Psychology)

The IQAC, MSC organized an International Webinar on Experiences of ‘Engaging with Diverse Communities and Key Leanings’. The Principal Prof.(Dr.) Harpreet Kaur welcomed the panellists and shared her observations on the topic after introductory remarks by Co-ordinator IQAC Dr. Manisha Mathur. The panellists, Ms Surpreet Cheema (Registered Psychologist with Australian & New Zealand Board) and Ms. Vinita Satija (Mental and Public Health Professional, India), two professional with first hand experience of working with diverse communities at the grass root level, responded to a number of questions and concerns raised by Moderator and Convener, Dr. Garima Kumar, who highlighted the need for engaging with communities as a third important pillar of higher education in the new curriculum framework, apart from teaching and research. Pertinent issues discussed were; how to develop an effective approach to engaging with communities?; what strategies are needed to enhance participation?, how can evaluation mechanisms be made robust? How can community engagement be a mutually beneficial process for all, by collectively incorporating diverse perspectives and stories?, how can we remain sensitive to the needs of diverse stakeholders by not just incorporating privileged positions of a dominant few researchers/ practitioners? how can we infuse the spirit of learning and serving in higher education institutions? and more. Sharing real life examples, their challenges and dilemmas from the field, the panellists enriched over 170 participants across different universities of the country with their insightful observations. Some practical steps that emerged from the interaction include:

- Challenging ones assumptions of understanding of what the “other” party looks like or needs. Accepting that there is much we do not know or understand.
- Institutions of higher education , -students, academia, administrators and civil society - may begin by simply asking community members about their desires or objectives for a partnership and programme, to make all conversations and programme partnerships mutually meaningful.

Mata Sundri College for Women

- Significance of evaluating community perspectives, putting their voices at the centre of conversations on partnerships and incorporate the findings into the program design and development. Maintaining a posture of humility in all we do.

The session ended with a vote of thanks by Dr. Harinder M. Sandhu.

Thus we promote and follow the practice of serving a langar - a community meal - from a community kitchen on Founder's Day and other occasions. B.A. History Honours Semester VI

जैसा की हम सभी जानते हैं, कबीर जी की कोई जाति या धर्म नहीं थी, वे एक ऐसे समाज का हिस्सा थे जहाँ उन्होंने समानता, न्याय आदि शब्दों का उपयोग किया। जहाँ समाज कई धर्मों के जटिल जालों में जकड़ा हुआ था। उन जालों से बाहर निकलने व मनुष्य को मानवता के पथ पर लाने के लिए कबीर जी की वाणियों ने पत्थर का कार्य किया।

कबीर की इसी सोच ने हमें आज फिर से इस बात के लिए जागरूक कर दिया है की हम साम्प्रदायिकता के बन्धनों को तोड़ कर कबीर की वाणियों के माध्यम से मानवता का प्रसार करें।

इसी उद्देश्य के पूर्ति हेतु 16 मार्च 2016 को माता सुन्दरी कॉलेज के हमारे इतिहास विभाग ने मिलकर एक ऐसे सेमिनार का आयोजन किया जिसका लक्ष्य हमारे आज को बेहतर बनाना था। इसी उद्देश्य को लेकर माननीय वक्ताओं ने अपने अनुभवों को हमारे साथ साँझा किया व भिन्न-भिन्न उदाहरणों के माध्यम से कबीर जी की सोच की आवश्यकताओं व भिन्न-भिन्न धर्मों द्वारा उनकी अहमियत को आज के सन्दर्भ में रखते हुए एक नई सोच का विकास किया।

सेमिनार के उद्देश्य की पूर्ति उस दौरान हुई जब भिन्न-भिन्न कार्यक्रमों जैसे- नाटक, डॉक्यूमेंट्री, प्रश्नोत्तरी (Quiz) तथा दोहों के प्रकटीकरण ने इस बात की पुष्टि कर दी की विद्यार्थियों ने भी इसकी अहमियत को समझा।

माननीय वक्ताओं ने भी गुरु ग्रन्थ साहेब व बीजक के उदाहरणों द्वारा कबीर जी के दोहों को साँझा किया। साथ-ही-साथ उन्होंने ये भी बताया की किस प्रकार भिन्न-भिन्न धर्मों ने कबीर जी की मान्यताओं को अपनाया व अपने अनुरूप या अपने अनुसार उन्हें श्रद्धांजली
