Date: 7th January 2024

Time: 10 am to 2 pm

Venue: Multipurpose Hall, India International Centre, New Delhi

In honour of the historic cultural bond shared between India and South Korea, the Welcoming Ceremony of the 40 Korean students, celebrating the beginning of their 21-days visit to India for the success of the project_ “Mother of Peace Service”, was organised on 7th January 2024 in Multipurpose Hall, India International Centre, New Delhi.

The event commenced in the morning and carried the essence of unitedness with the slogan_ “One World, One Family”, which is English translation of the Sanskrit phrase_ “Vasudhev Kutumbkam”, a deep rooted belief of the Indian culture. Peace Club of various colleges, functioning under the jurisdiction of Delhi University, were present among the audience, including Peace Club members of Mata Sundri College for Women.

Noval perspectives on peace building flourished under the honourable chief guest, Mr. Bhubaneswar Kalita, a Member of Parliament and the Chairman of International Association of Privacy Professionals; South Asia. Moreover, the Korean students successfully won the hearts of the entire audience with their memorising singing performance. They proved that music is strong enough to cut the boundaries set by languages.

After the delivery of vote of thanks, group pictures were taken to cease the joyful moments. The ceremony was followed by lunch in which students from both the countries got the chance to have informal conversations and to know each other’s manner of conduct in a better way. Their growing interaction proved that the event was indeed a success.
