

REPORT On
Workshop
“How to Ace Personal Interview”
Organised
By
PRAYAS – The Placement and Internship Cell

*An initiative of Mata Sundri College for Women in Collaboration with TathaGat

On 28th June 2024, PRAYAS – The Placement and Internship Cell of Mata Sundri College for Women in collaboration with TathaGat conducted a Workshop on “How to Ace Personal Interview”. The event was graced by the presence of an eminent speaker Mr. Kumar Abhishek.

TathaGat, founded in 2007 and based in Delhi, is one of India’s largest test prep platforms, dedicated to helping learners achieve their exam goals. They provide live and recorded classes, batch courses, quizzes, practice questions, doubt-solving sessions, notes, and current affair magazines.

Mr. Kumar Abhishek is a Post Graduate in Human Resources from IMI, Delhi. As a co-founder of TathaGat, he has mentored over 20,000 students and has assisted many in gaining admission to top B-Schools worldwide, including Wharton, Harvard, and INSEAD. He is also an avid reader of philosophy, literature, and religion, advocating for the rationality of religion.

The workshop was attended by a total of 45 students. It was held online via Zoom Meet from 6 pm to 8 pm.

During the workshop, Mr. Kumar Abhishek provided valuable insights that are vital for making a lasting impression on interviewers. He emphasized that names reflect our identity and can provide a unique advantage in professional settings. By encouraging attendees to view interviews as opportunities for meaningful dialogue rather than mere formalities, Mr. Abhishek highlighted the importance of self awareness. He guided participants to understand their strengths and weaknesses and outlined essential interview etiquette, such as greeting according to hierarchy, maintaining eye contact, and dressing formally, while also stressing the need to express gratitude at the end of interview.

The faculty member present during the workshop was Ms. Ashema Hasti, the Convener of the Placement Cell.

The event concluded with an interactive session where Mr. Abhishek addressed participants' questions, providing tailored advice and enriching the overall experience. His insights equipped attendees with valuable strategies to present themselves as confident and well-prepared candidates in their professional journeys.

