

REPORT On
Bootcamp Day - 5
“Mock group discussion session”
Organized By
PRAYAS- Placement and Internship Cell

On the auspicious day of 22nd September 2023, the distinguished placement cell of Mate Sundri College of Women orchestrated a meticulously planned mock group discussion. This intellectually stimulating event served as an opportunity for aspiring individuals to hone their communication skills, critical thinking abilities, and assertiveness, all essential attributes sought after in the cutthroat professional world.

A total of 14 students registered for the workshop which was held offline on 22st September 2023 from 1:00 pm to 3:00 pm.

The ambiance of the venue was imbued with an air of anticipation and fervour as the participants took their positions, poised to engage in an exhilarating exchange of ideas. The participants represented a diverse array of academic disciplines, each bringing their unique perspectives and experiences to the table. The carefully crafted discussion topics covered a broad spectrum of contemporary issues ranging from socio-political dynamics to technological advancements, ensuring a multifaceted discourse that kept both the participants and the audience engrossed.

Under the able guidance of the placement cell, the mock group discussion exemplified the epitome of professionalism and adherence to decorum. Each participant was granted an equitable opportunity to voice their opinions, with the utmost emphasis on maintaining a healthy, respectful debate. The participants exhibited commendable proficiency in articulating their viewpoints, substantiating them with well-rounded arguments and commendable eloquence. Such an intellectually stimulating environment facilitated the development of nuanced and discerning perspectives, fostering a fertile ground for intellectual growth and learning.

The personalized feedback, both in-person and via mail, served as a catalyst for individual growth and development. It allowed the students to identify their strengths and weaknesses, enabling them to work towards refining their skill set. The inclusion of constructive criticism in the feedback provided the participants with valuable insights into areas that required attention and further improvement. Moreover, the provision of feedback through mail ensured that students had a tangible resource to refer to, further aiding their progress and serving as a constant reminder of their areas of focus.

The success of the session was widely recognized and applauded by Ms. Ashema Hasti, the Co-Convener, Ms. Jasmeet Kaur and Ms. Ishleen Rekhi, a respected faculty member of Mata Sundri College for Women.

In conclusion, the mock group discussion held on 22nd September 2023, organized by the placement cell of Mata Sundri College of Women, left an indelible mark on the participants, imbuing them with a newfound sense of self-assurance and proficiency in the art of communication. The event's success can be attributed to the meticulous planning, the involvement of multifarious participants, and the unwavering commitment to professionalism exhibited throughout. These invaluable skills acquired during the session are bound to shape the future endeavours of these individuals, enabling them to emerge as exceptional professionals in their chosen fields.
