On the 16th of February 2023, PRAYAS - the Placement and Internship Cell of Mata Sundri College for Women orchestrated a Workshop in collaboration with Department of Punjabi. The primary objective of this workshop was to educate students about the various job opportunities available in the field of Punjabi. This collaborative initiative aimed to connect the students with promising career opportunities.

Mr. S. Prakash Singh Gill serves as a dedicated lecturer at Guru Harkishan Public School in Shahdara, where he imparts knowledge and shapes young minds. Moreover, he is a member of the CBSE Curriculum System Committee, where he plays a crucial role in shaping the course and syllabus for the Punjabi language. Beyond his teaching endeavours, Mr. Gill is an advocate for the Punjabi language and culture, serving as the President of Punjabi Helpline. Additionally, Mr. Gill takes on the role of Chief Editor at Sandesh E Paper, where he contributes to the distribution of information and news within the Punjabi community.

A total of 49 students registered for the event with 29 participations.

The gathering commenced with a warm and gracious welcome extended to all participants by Dr. Jagjeet Kaur, the convener of the event. Subsequently, Dr. Rubal Sharma, from the Department of Political Science, and Co-Convener of the event, delivered an inspiring speech, setting the tone for the proceedings. The event received a distinguished presence as Professor Harpreet Kaur, the principal of the college, honoured the guests with traditional shawls. The highlight of the event was Mr. Prakash Singh Gill's insightful talk. He provided valuable information about government job opportunities after completing different degree programs and explored various aspects of Punjabi language and culture in depth. The event culminated with Mr. Prakash's presentation, leaving attendees enriched with knowledge and inspired for their future career and growth. To bring the proceedings to a close, Dr. Jagjeet Kaur, the Head of the Department (H.O.D), joined by Dr. Gurjit Kaur, Dr. Veenakshi, and other esteemed faculty members, expressed their heartfelt gratitude to the speaker and commended the collaborative effort of the Placement Cell and the Punjabi Department.
