

Annual Day Celebration at Mata Sundri College for Women

Mata Sundri College, Delhi University celebrated its 57th Annual Day on 10th May with unparalleled fervor and enthusiasm, marking an exuberant culmination of a year filled with academic accomplishments and cultural festivities for the holistic development of the college community.

The event commenced with Shabad recital. The chief guest for the occasion was Sardar Iqbal Singh Lalpura, Chairman, National Commission on Minorities. The event also witnessed the distinguished presence of Padma Shri Dr. Vikramjit Singh Sahney (Chairman, College Governing Body) S. Prithipal Singh ji (Treasurer, Governing Body) S. Kulbir Singh ji (member, Governing Body) S. Manpreet Singh ji (President, Indian Chamber of International Business) D.I.G Pratap Singh ji, Captain L.S Bahl and Miss. Zena Chung (Founder and Director, Indo-Korea Business Culture Centre).

The college principal Dr. Prof. Harpreet Kaur welcomed the distinguished guests and expressed gratitude to all the stakeholders for their unwavering support towards the growth of the college. She also highlighted the relentless pursuit of academic excellence by the institution. Dr. Vikramjit ji congratulated the college for the exemplary achievements of its principal, faculty and students. He expressed his commitment to get more funds allocated for students' scholarships for the benefit of economically weak students. S. Iqbal Singh ji stressed on the need for more skill based education to facilitate students in building a successful career.

The highlight of the event was the recognition of merit, where outstanding students were awarded for their dedication and achievements in various fields inspiring other students to contribute to the college's ethos of excellence. Kulvinder Kaur was declared as Best Student of the year.

The college magazine 'Bani' was released. A book on Kartarpur Sahib, authored by principal Dr. Harpreet Kaur and books authored by several other faculty members were also released on the occasion. An audio visual presentation showcased a vibrant blend of academic and co-curricular achievements by the principal, faculty and students. Glimpses of various national and international seminars, conferences, talks, lectures, heritage walks, cultural events, fests were displayed.

The celebration concluded with a vote of thanks by Convener, Dr Divya Pradhan.