

MATA SUNDRI COLLEGE FOR WOMEN

KASAK: B. A. PROGRAMME SOCIETY

A 7-day University Level Inter-college competition Series to celebrate International Development Week

7th to 13th February 2021

Kasak, The BA Programme Society of MSCW celebrated the International development week with great enthusiasm as AAGAZ. Since 1991, International Development Week has been held in early February and is celebrated for a week from the 7th to the 13th of February. This wonderfully Canadian tradition allows students to reflect on Canada's contributions to international assistance. The session was held in online mode to ensure the safety of both the students and professors. More than 100 participants joined the event every day and made it successful.

The event started with a great ceremony by the divinity society of our college. Madam Principal did the opening ceremony and enlightened the students with her soulful words. On the Very first day of the event, there was the painting competition "ABSTRACT" coordinated by SHWETA SHARMA and SURBHI CHAUHAN. The theme for the competition was DEPRIVATION.

Every day was set up with a great event to make the event fun for the participants. On 8 Th of February, CONTROVERSY – GROUP DISCUSSION was held on a very vital topic "EMERGING ROLE OF WOMEN IN AGRICULTURE SECTOR." The discussion became very fruitful and knowledgeable. Ended with a great conclusion. The Event was coordinated by the most amazing students, SHIPRA CHAUDHARY and PRAPTI SONI.

On the Third day of the Event, CAESURA – POETRY COMPETITION was held on the Google meet, whose student coordinators were. JASNEET KAUR and RHYTHM GULATI. The theme was chosen so wisely for the participants THEME – WOMEN EMPOWERMENT. The other day I had such amazing competitions on story writing, storytelling and quiz competitions.

The Valedictory session was started with an incredible performance of folk music by the divinity society of college. Ms. Priyadarshini Bhattacharya, English department Graced the occasion. She explained the relevance and influence of folk music in cinema. Many songs such as "Nain lad jai hai", "ghoomar", "O sheronwali", and "chudiyen khankhank gayeen" were also played. Not only this but certain clips of the movie "Hangsharaj" were also shown. It perfectly defined the Influence of folk music in Indian cinema. The students were enthusiastic and participated with great zeal.

A medley of cultural programs was presented by several students and a Q&A session was also organized to solve the queries regarding folk music.

A mesmerizing performance by Virsa, the giddha society of college was also held under the guidance of Coach Sarabjit Mangat. The event was followed by an award session to participants who aced the competitions such as debate, poetry, story writing, storytelling, etc. The event came to an end with a fascinating performance by the bhangra society of the college.
