

Special Lecture on - Reflections on My Journey as a Manager of a Purani Dilli School

Department of Elementary Education organized a special lecture by Prof. Farah Farooqi on Feb 21, 2017. The lecture was attended by all students of B.El.Ed. & B.A. (P) Education discipline as well as the faculty members of both the departments. Prof. Farooqi is a well known personality in the field of education and presently associated with the Faculty of Education at Jamia Millia Islamia, Delhi. She shared her experiences with children and staff of the school where she acted as manager for certain years. The school was situated in a ghetto where majority of the residents were Muslims who work in various factories. She explained that social context of children coming from old Delhi was playing an important role in their educational experiences at school.
