

EMERGING CYBER SECURITY CHALLENGES TALK (Sept 29, 2019)

Lecture on ‘Emerging Cyber Security Challenges’ by Dr. Muktesh Chander, IPS, Special Commissioner Delhi Police & former DGP Goa was held on September 29, 2019 at 15:00 IST (3:00 PM), organised by: D CE Alumni Association, Computer Society of India-DC at BK Centre ,Sri Fort, delhi. Students of Computer Science Department, Batch 2018-2021, Preeti Trikha and Aradhana Dang along with maths senior faculty Dr. Rama and Computer Science faculty Dr. Nidhi got the opportunity to attend the session. Dr. Muktesh Chander talked about the increasing cyber threats and how it is important to stay safe online. Lecture covered different types of cyber attacks , for example- Phishing, Ransomeware , DoS and DDoS Attacks,etc.. He showcased some Big Cyber Attacks that happened in the World and what were their effects affecting the society and the world we live in. The main focus of the lecture was to make the audience aware of threats that can happen online and the importance of online safety. Later, Prof. (Dr.) S.K.Yadav, Hon. Secretary talked about “Cryptography and its use”. It was an eye opener and quite informative session through which our students got enlightened with knowledge of the cyber world.

