To make the event more exciting there were more tags like 'Ms swaying toes' for the best dancer,

'Ms quarantine perfectionist' for the most talented person in lockdown, 'Ms Melodious Intone' for the best singer and 'Ms jovial' for the social media queen. The participants for these tags were asked to send their videos showcasing their talent. The winners for the above tags were selected by audience poll.

Round 3 'Clash On Flash' was the final round. The qualifying participants were asked questions about characters they imitated from famous TV shows. They were given 45 seconds, and the participant who answered the most questions correctly won it.

While the results were prepared by the judges, a member of Invictus sang a beautiful medley. It was a treat to the ears! The audience and the teachers loved it so much that they didn't mind joining the singer by singing along in their sweet voices. To engage the audience more, we played a game called 'Never have I ever' where the audiences were given certain fun scenarios and they were supposed to drink water for all the scenarios they had experienced. The audience
