Report

The movie screening of 'The Pursuit of Hapyness' organised by Arthavrishti the economics society of Mata Sundri College for Women, University of Delhi on 24 April, 2024. The students witnessed an emotional journey echoing the resilience of the human spirit.

The film, based on the true story of Chris Gardner, illustrated the importance of maintaining hope and determination despite significant challenges such as homelessness and financial hardship. Students were inspired by Gardner's unwavering commitment to his goals and the lengths he went to provide a better life for his son. The movie also highlighted the value of hard work, the impact of supportive relationships, and the idea that success often comes after numerous failures and setbacks.

Overall, students were moved by the message that with determination and effort, it is possible to overcome difficult circumstances and achieve one's dreams. And, the event was a great success.
