

Event: Dimension of Indian National Security@ 2047

Organisers: Polimates in collaboration with Dr. Ambedkar International Centre

Date: 23rd April 2024

Time: 3:30 PM

Venue: Samrastha Hall, 15, Janpath, New Delhi.

Headcount: 66

Special lecture series on “Dimension of Indian National Security@2047” was organised by Polimates, the Department of Political Science of Mata Sundri College for Women, University of Delhi, in collaboration with Dr. Ambedkar International Centre, on 23rd April 2024 in Samrastha Hall. The event formally commenced at 3:50 PM with a headcount of 66.

After a 20 minutes lunch break, the audience began to occupy the seats and were heartily welcomed by Mr. Akash Patil, the Director of DAIC, who further felicitated the chairperson of the event, Prof. (Dr.) Harpreet Kaur, the Principal of MSCW, and the eminent speaker, Shri Rajiv Nayan, the Senior Research Associate at Manohar Parrikar Institute of Defence Studies and Analyses (MPIDSA). The former highlighted on the widened diaspora of security along with the concept of Vasudev Kutumbakam and the latter emphasised on the evident challenges, solutions and indicators of India’s security in 2047.

Afterwards, many interesting questions were entertained by the guests. In her final address to the youngsters, the chairperson underscored the importance of cultural bonds in international arena. Following that, vote of thanks was presented by Dr. Shiv Pathak, an Associate Professor at DAIC. The event ended at 5:45 PM with several memorable group photographs.