

Orientation for Department of Political Science (2021)

An online Orientation was organized to welcome and familiarize the new 1st year students with the Department of Political Science on 22nd November 2021. The orientation was attended by all the teachers of the department along with the new students to guide them about the Department and various activities organized by the Department. The orientation programme was aimed at helping the students to transition to college life, know and interact with their faculty, gain knowledge about different clubs of the department and develop a network among their peers and seniors. They were briefed about extracurricular activities, social clubs, events, workshops and other special training programmes undertaken by the Department. The interaction among the students and the department faculty imparted a feeling of belongingness, which made them feel a part of the department. The new students were encouraged to clear their doubts regarding online classes and how to get involved in different department clubs and workshops. It prepared them for the upcoming semester before the beginning of classes. The orientation gave the students a sense of what online learning and classes entails as they could get a sense of how to adjust to and improve their online class performance.
