

Event- POLIFIESTA'24

Date- 21st February 2024

Time-10 AM onwards

The Department of Political Science hosted its annual Academic fest, POLIFIESTA'24 on February, 21, 2024 from 10 AM onwards. The Inaugural Event commenced with a performance at 10:30 AM, in the college auditorium where all the faculty, Principal, Prof. Harpreet Kaur and Administrative Officer, Mr. Manjeet Singh were present. The event started with a stirring speech by respected Principal mam at 10:47 AM. She spoke at length on 'Youth Empowerment,' emphasizing on the contribution of youth towards a 'Viksit Bharat'. Dr. Moitri Dey, Convenor of the event introduced the theme of the Fest, how it is relevant in today's time which is the time of the youth.

Simultaneously, various competitions unfolded in different venues, creating an immersive atmosphere filled with diverse stalls and decorations. 'Callistroke' the Calligraphy Competition started in room no 308, where participants from various colleges showcased their intricate penmanship skills, turning the competition into a visual celebration of artistic finesse.

In the same venue, room no 308, another event titled 'Chromatic Canvas' the Poster Making Competition also unfolded, emerging as a vibrant showcase of artistic expression. The visually enchanting posters adorned the event venue, each telling a unique visual story and contributing to the fusion of intellect and artistic flair that defined the fest.

The intellectual discourse of the academic fest reached its pinnacle through the event "Zenith" Turncoat Debate in room no 324. This unique format challenged participants to switch stances during the discussion, fostering versatile and critical thinking. The topic, 'Women Reservation in Lok Sabha- A Step Towards Equality,' sparked engaging discussions, making the Zenith Turn Coat Debate a standout component of POLIFIESTA'24.

Finally, bringing the curtains down, the 'Noor-e-Aks' Open Mic session took center stage in the Mata Sahib Kaur Auditorium. Commencing at 10:58 AM, this segment unveiled a diverse tapestry of talents, with extraordinary performances ranging from dance and monologues to poetry and singing. Each presentation contributed to the vibrant energy in the auditorium, showcasing the multifaceted creativity of the participants.

The grand finale featured a lively folk dance by the Bhangra Society, infusing the auditorium with vibrant energy, followed by an electrifying band performance by Aditya Jayant that resonated with the audience. Winners were announced and certificates were distributed in the end.

The Teacher-in-charge, Ms. Poonam Sharma, Co-Convenors, Dr. Neetu Sharma and Dr. Simerpreet Kaur and Team Polimates expressed heartfelt gratitude to the Principal, our generous sponsors, and everyone who contributed and for their unwavering support for making the fest possible. POLIFIESTA'24, with its myriad performances and thought-provoking discussions, not only celebrated intellect and artistry but also fostered a sense of community, leaving an enduring impact on everyone involved.
