

Polifiesta: The Department Annual Fest held on 6th February 2020

The Department of Political Science had organized a one-day inter-college fest. It consisted of 3 events namely, debate competition, quiz competition and poster making competition. The fest was organized on the theme of 'Celebrating 71 years of Indian Republic'. The response from various colleges was overwhelming and students exhibited great interest in the event during the entire duration.