

Report

Mata Sundri College for Women

Delhi University

Department of political science in collaboration with the life lotus foundation

Convenor- Dr. Rachna Kumari Prasad

Teacher-in-charge- Ms Poonam Sharma

An offline and online free legal aid camp was conducted on 22 of July, 2022 from 11 am to 2 pm (offline) and 5 pm to 7:00 pm (online) by the department of political science, Mata Sundri college for women, Delhi University in collaboration with the life lotus foundation. This camp took place under the supervision and guidance of professor Dr. Rachna Kumari Prasad.

The camp was inaugurated by Dr. Rachna K. Prasad ma'am with a welcome speech, followed by felicitation of respected Pranam Priya sir from respected TIC Poonam Sharma ma'am. Later a speech by founder of the organisation Mr. Pranam Priya sir was given. Seven to eight minutes small skit performance focusing on the theme of legal aid was also performed by students of political science. This was followed by vote of thanks of student coordinator Tamanna.

The camp focused on providing free legal aid to needy people by providing them the guidance and resource persons like lawyers. Students from Mata Sundri college for women acted as volunteers to find beneficiaries i.e., the people in need of legal guidance, and then these people were given legal advice and consultation from the lawyers in an offline mode as well as in the zoom meeting in personal breakout rooms. Volunteers worked really hard for more than a month under the guidance of Rachna ma'am and student coordinators from all the three years, Nandana Menon from third year, Simran Pal Kaur from third year and Tamanna from second year to find beneficiaries. Around 20 students participated as volunteers with over 52 beneficiaries in total. In the end of the session student coordinator. This was followed by vote of thanks of student coordinator Tamanna.