WORKSHOP “RESEARCH FOR BEGINNERS”

In collaboration with the Library Progression Committee, the Department of Political Science and the Department of Economics conducted an offline workshop on " Research for Beginners" on September 30th, 2022 at 12:15pm. This workshop aimed to guide students in writing and developing research papers. The main purposes of any research are to inform actions, gather evidence for theories, and contribute to the development of knowledge in a field of study.

The workshop began with the speakers Dr. Meenakshi Sinha Swami and Dr. Shashwati being felicitated with planters as a token of gratitude by the teacher-in-charge of the Economics and Political Science department, Ms. Shivani Verma and Ms. Poonam Sharma. Then Sonia Aneja Ma'am from the Library Progressions Committee enlightened the students about the functioning of Library Progressions Committee. Dr. Meenakshi Sinha began her presentation on “Research ideas in Economics and its Interdisciplinary offshoots”. She gave an elaborate explanation of all the possible ideas and how to move forward with them.

The title of Dr. Shashwati's presentation was "Modes of Inquiry within Social Research”. The presentation helped the students greatly in understanding the possible modes of inquiry. Both the speakers enlightened the audience with their broad set of skills and years of experience in the field of research. A doubt session was also undertaken to solve all the queries that can arise after listening to the presentation. The presence and words of the speakers made the event a great success.
