

Webinar: Chinese Foreign Policy Towards India held on 24th July 2020

Convenor: Dr. Rouble Sharma

The Department of Political Science had organized a webinar on the subject - Chinese Foreign Policy Towards India on 24th July 2020. The webinar was conducted by Mr. Anuar Baltabayev, Kazakh University. As two major Asian countries India and China represent complex, dynamic strategic importance at the global level. The relationship between India and China have been marred with both cooperation and discord. This webinar was an attempt understand the essence of Indo-China relations especially in the post Doklam standoff.