Mata Sundri College For Women is one of the reputed colleges of Delhi University. The alumni of the political science department are excelling in various fields like academics, law, civil services, media, social work, research, corporate world and a lot more. Alumni Meet 'COALESCE 22' was organised on 15th January from 12pm onwards by the Department of Political Science in Collaboration with the Central Alumni Committee of Mata Sundri College and was a virtual event held at Zoom. The event started with Co-Convenor Dr. Simerpreet Kaur welcome note. She invited our honourable principal Dr Harpreet Kaur, who shared her valuable words with us. Then our Teacher in Charge Ms Roselin Sekho was invited, and she welcomed our alumni with a warm heart. Then the host invited Dr Jasjit Kaur; retired teacher from the college who shared her views that Alumnis should come forward and lend support to students in placements, Ph.d programs and shared her college experiences. This was followed by Co-Convenor Dr. Rachna Prasad who enlightened the alumni and students with information about the MA Motivation Cell in college and its events. Dr Pooja Jaggi, patron and convenor of Central Alumni committee addressed the Alumni and shared an email as means of communication between alumni and college for expertise and ideas. Students from the college presented their thoughts in the form of poems and songs and even Alumni Shalini and Yanchal Aggarwal refreshed their college memories. The event also witnessed the video compilation of college almas, talking about their bonding with college. There was a total of 53 alumni and 80 participants present in the virtual meet. The interactive session ended with an interesting game followed by vote of thanks by the president of the department, Ms. Saloni khandelwal and our beloved faculty member Ms. Neetu Sharma.
