

Report on Film Analysis

Date – 26.09.2023

Venue- psychology lab (room no. 326)

Description – The Psychology Department at Mata Sundari College organized an engaging session on "Film Analysis." The event kicked off at 10:30 AM, featuring Mr. Saurav Sarkar, a renowned film director and writer, as the guest speaker.

Mr. Sarkar began by introducing himself and sharing insights into the world of documentaries. He then screened his 2016 film "Nibhritochari Solitary Soul," a 23-minute short film that portrayed the positive life within an elderly care center in West Bengal, challenging the notion of social abandonment. This film had received recognition as the best documentary film at the Prayag International Film Festival in New Delhi in 2017.

Following the screening, a lively discussion unfolded with the approximately 70 students present, including those from the second and third years of the B.A. Hons. program and all years of the B.A. program. Students shared their perspectives and interpretations of the film.

To wrap up the session, Mr. Sarkar shared his contact information and encouraged each student to provide their feedback and constructive criticism. This event showcased department's commitment to promoting intellectual exploration and enriching the academic experience of its students.
