

Inter-class Guru Nanak paper reading competition

The Department of Punjabi of Mata Sundri College for Women had organized a Inter-class Guru Nanak paper reading competition on 12 February, 2024. The participant from the different courses had presented their paper on the given subject. Some of the students has emphasis on his moral teaching and some of covered their whole teaching in global perspective.

Three students in which two from the History department and one from the Punjabi department got Ist, IInd and IIIrd position. All the teachers from the Punjabi department were also there to anchorage the student. Dr Isleen form the Commerce department was the judge of the event.