

Report: international Book fair

On February 16, 2024, Punjabi department of Mata Sundri College organized a trip to the International Book Fair at Pragati Maidan, under the supervision of conveners Jagjit Kaur and Harvinder Kaur. This highly anticipated event saw enthusiastic participation from students eager to immerse themselves in the world of literature. The fair, renowned for its extensive collection of books, featured a diverse array of genres and publishers from across the globe.

Students had the opportunity to explore numerous literary works, ranging from fiction and non-fiction to academic and self-help books. They attended book launches and signings, where they could meet and interact with renowned authors. These interactions provided invaluable insights into the minds behind the books they love.

The fair also hosted various workshops and seminars, which offered students a deeper understanding of the publishing industry, including the processes of writing, editing, and marketing books. These sessions were not only informative but also inspiring, as they highlighted potential career paths within the literary field.

The trip, meticulously organized by Jagjit Kaur and Harvinder Kaur, fostered a love for reading among students and broadened their literary horizons. It was an enriching experience that emphasized the importance of books in cultural exchange and personal growth. Overall, the visit to the International Book Fair was both educational and inspiring, leaving a lasting impact on all participants.
