

REPORT- SAARANG- SANSKRIT PRASHNMANCH & SHLOKAVRITTI

Sanskrit Prashnamanch Shlokavritti were organized by the Department of Sanskrit in Saarang, both these competitions were held on 20th February 2019 in Room No. 226. In this, 11 individual competitors and three teams from different colleges participated in the Shlokavritti competition and 13 teams participated in the Prashnamanch competition. Dr. Satyamurti Professor of Sanskrit Department of Jawaharlal Nehru university and Dr. Abha Dev, retired professor of Mata Sundri College, was present as the chief guest on this occasion, who played the role of external judges. The role of internal judges was played by Dr. Asha Rani, professor of Sanskrit Department of Mata Sundri College. Thereafter, Dr. Asha Rani, Senior Spokesperson of the Department welcomed the chief guest with a bouquet. In the Shlokavritti competition, Mata Sundri College got the first prize in the team award. In individual awards, Mata Sundri College got the first and second prize and third place went to St. Stephens. The winners were awarded medals, trophies and money by the jury on the occasion.

After the end of the Shlokavritti competition, the Sanskrit question forum competition started. 15 teams from different colleges participated in this competition. The question forum was conducted by Dr. Monika Mishra. In the question forum, different teams were seen giving a tough competition to each other while facing questions in three rounds of two phases. Ultimately the team of Mata Sundri College secured the first position by defeating other teams. Hindu got the second place.

At the end of the question stage competition, Dr. Satyamurti and Dr. Abha Dev encouraged all the winning teams by wearing medals and giving them trophies.