Department of Environmental Studies in collaboration with Swachh Core Team organised Inauguration of Vending Machines, Sanitary Napkins and Incinerators on 19 March,2024 with the organisations - BSES Yamuna Power Limited, CSR and HLL Lifecare Limited.

Mata Sundri College for Women, University of Delhi, in collaboration with the BSES Yamuna Power Limited under its Corporate Social Responsibility initiative undertaken by HLL Lifecare Limited, a Central Public Sector Undertaking wholly owned by the Ministry of Health & Family Welfare, installed 20 sanitary pad vending machines and incinerators in the college campus.

The event started at 12:30 pm with the permission of convenor of the event - Dr. Kavita Singh. The Student Coordinator of Department of Environmental Studies - Pavni Bhargava and Urvi welcomed all the dignitaries and participants.

The aim behind this installation of vending machines in college campus is that in the absence of proper awareness, education and access to female hygiene products, many girls, during their first period, feel they have been afflicted with terrible diseases. Hence, it is imperative to promote menstrual hygiene practices in adolescent girls/women by ensuring easy access to menstrual hygiene products.

The college's principal, Prof. Harpreet Kaur, gave her welcome remarks and thanked both BSES Yamuna Power Limited and HLL Lifecare Limited for their initiative to ensure mensural hygiene. After then , dignitaries of BSES Yamuna Power Limited and HLL Lifecare Limited told all the attendees about their initiatives and that every girl should use the incinerators for disposal of sanitary napkins in college campus. They also told about the process of operating it . A short video was also played related to the menstrual awareness and hygienic practices. Then , the Chief Student Coordinator of Department of Environmental Studies - Riya Jain thanked the BSES Yamuna Power Limited, CSR and HLL Lifecare Limited for choosing our college for installation of Vending Machines and Incinerators.

This initiative was taken up by Dr. Kavita Singh, Department of the Environmental Studies, and the faculty members who attended the were Dr. Moitri Dey, Dr.

Meenakshi, Mr. Sunil, Ms. Priyanka along with student coordinators Riya Jain and Megha. Principal, Prof. Harpreet Kaur inaugurated both the sanitary pad vending machine and incinerators in the campus which is now functional in the college.

Feedback-attendance form was floated that was supposed to be filled by the participants. The feedback was positive, stating how the event was interesting for all the attendants. The event was concluded with the vote of thanks of Dr. Kavita Singh.
