Acknowledgements

This translated book infact, is a humble tribute to the great Leader of the Sikh community, Baba Banda Singh Bahadur whose contribution to our rich tradition of history and heritage has been immense and unforgettable. The aim of the English translation of the book by Dr. Harbans Kaur Sagoo namely, Dilli Wich Baba Banda Singh Bahadur Naal Sambandhit Sathana Di Nishandehi is to cater to the larger readers. At the very outset, I thank Dr. Sagoo from the depth of my heart. I am indebted to her constant support and encouragement. Infact, when Dr. Sagoo was doing her fieldwork, my curiosity also prompted me to accompany her on a few visits. It was quite challenging but extremely rewarding to visit, identify and locate the places related to the life of Baba Banda Singh Bahadur in Delhi. Since that time, the whole project of locating the places related to Baba Banda Singh Bahadur in Delhi fascinated me and this endeavour of translating the book that is result of persuasive fieldwork has given me immense satisfaction.

I have also translated the book written by Dr. Harbans Kaur Sagoo namely, Banda Singh Bahadur: Life and Martyrdom (16th October, 1670 to 9th June, 1716 A.D.) in English as well as in Hindi, so that it could cater the vast readership with the multi-lingual backgrounds. I have also contributed in the recent book on Baba Banda Singh Bahadur namely, Baba Banda Singh Bahadur: Mahan Sikh Jarnail and participated in the National level Seminar held to commemorate the tercentenary of the martyrdom of Baba Banda Singh Bahadur organized by the International Centre for Sikh Studies in the Mata Sahib Kaur Auditorium of Mata Sundri College on the Life and Achievements of Baba Banda Singh Bahadur. So, the translation of this book provided me with further impetus in my recent endeavours to disseminate about a Great General of the Sikh community.

I would like to especially thank Dr. Jaspal Singh, Former Vice Chancellor, Punjabi University, Patiala from the core of my heart for inculcating deep interest in the Sikh History and Heritage since the time of his brief stint as Principal of Sri Guru Gobind Singh College of Commerce, University of Delhi.

I pray to Waheguru to bless me with good health and sprit with dedication to pursue more such endeavours in the future that could inculcate interest especially in the youth and attach them with our glorious history and heritage and vibrant culture.
