Bhai Vir Singh, through his letters commiserated with the people in distress and provided them with much needed spiritual guidance on various stressful and difficult phases in life. Undoubtedly, these letters are profound, and are replete with healing, and convey Sikh tenets. This volume of translated letters is suffused with the same warmth and affection as is in the Punjabi volume. Oftentimes, our own determination wears off, we ignorantly stray from our path. It is hoped that these letters will give a refill to the enthusiasm to anyone who is wavering and faltering, and he or she will definitely find a path with a renewed hope.
