Abstract

'Bharat Mala' is a virtue made out of 'Vaijayanti Mala' and 'Var Mala' which is linked to the progress of national economy. It is followed to choose the pearls of a professional to enable him/her to pass the thread of quest through each of them to make a garland called as titled.

Pearls like Motivation, Communication, Leadership and Discipline are generic words practically covering all professionals. They rest in mind, words and actions to make a life-long association. They are subject of study and research. Collectively they are the integrals of Personnel/Human Resource Management.

Essentials and utility of 'Motivation' and 'Communication' is explained. Working definition of 'Inspiration' and 'Leadership' is re-drafted and 'Immortal Lessons' are an addition to the existing knowledge. New dimension 'Disciplinary Commandments' for daily compliance is added, which is suggested by the veterans for the working professionals.

Pearls decorated with ethical colours protect a professional from becoming a disgrace. Silent communication between the dejected Chairman, ISRO and the inspiring Prime Minister
