

Report on NSS Day Celebration

Date: 25 September 2026

Venue: Mata Sundri College for Women

Organised by: NSS Unit “Parivartan”, Mata Sundri College for Women

Theme: “Not Me But You – Youth for Community and Nation Building”

Mata Sundri College for Women celebrated NSS Day with great enthusiasm on 25 September 2026. The programme was organised by the NSS Unit Parivartan to commemorate the spirit of voluntary community service and to encourage young students to actively contribute towards social development and nation-building.

The celebration was graced by Shri Shrawan Ram, Regional Director, NSS, and Shri Manoj Kumar, NSS Directorate, whose presence encouraged and motivated the NSS volunteers. Prof. (Dr.) Harpreet Kaur, Principal, Mata Sundri College for Women, also graced the occasion and extended her support and encouragement to the NSS Unit.

The programme commenced with the ceremonial lighting of the lamp, symbolising knowledge, hope and the collective commitment towards social service. This was followed by the College Song and the NSS Song, “Uthe Samaj Ke Liye, Uthe,” creating a strong sense of unity and enthusiasm among the participants.

The distinguished guests, Shri Shrawan Ram and Shri Manoj Kumar, were felicitated as a mark of appreciation for their presence and continued support to NSS activities. The welcome address was delivered by Prof. (Dr.) Harpreet Kaur, Principal, who appreciated the efforts of the NSS volunteers and highlighted the importance of youth participation in community service and nation-building.

The celebration featured cultural and musical presentations by students, showcasing their talent, creativity and enthusiasm. A special musical presentation by singer Mohit Pandey further added vibrancy to the celebrations.

A significant highlight of the programme was the release of the Parivartan NSS magazines covering the last two years. The magazines document the various initiatives, outreach programmes, awareness campaigns, community service activities and achievements of the NSS Unit Parivartan. The publication serves as a valuable record of the sustained efforts and contributions of NSS volunteers towards society.

The celebration also provided an opportunity to recognise the dedication and active participation of NSS volunteers throughout the year. The volunteers were encouraged to remain committed to the values of selfless service, discipline, empathy, social responsibility and active citizenship.

The NSS Day celebration concluded on an inspiring note, with volunteers reaffirming their commitment to the NSS motto “Not Me But You.” The programme successfully highlighted the important role of youth in community development and nation-building while celebrating the achievements and journey of the NSS Unit Parivartan over the past two years.
