

Report on “The Peace Court”

The event “The Peace Court” was successfully organized on 21st September 2026 at Mata Sundri College for Women, University of Delhi. It was organized by the Peace Club with the objective of promoting dialogue, understanding, negotiation, and peaceful conflict resolution among students.

The program commenced at 12:00 P.M. at Mata Gujri Hall in the presence of esteemed dignitaries, including Prof. (Dr.) Harpreet Kaur, Principal, Dr. Moitri Dey, Co-Convener, and Dr. Neetu Sharma, Convener of the Peace Club.

The event began with an insightful speech by Dr. Neetu Sharma, who highlighted the importance of peace, communication, and understanding in resolving conflicts. She encouraged the students to actively participate in the activity and approach different situations with an open and balanced perspective.

Following the introductory address, the Peace Court competition commenced. A total of 9 teams, comprising 18 participants, actively participated in the competition. The participants were presented with different conflict-based situations and took part in the proceedings by presenting their arguments, defending each other, and putting forward their perspectives. The activity provided students with an opportunity to understand different sides of a conflict and find peaceful solutions through dialogue, negotiation, and mutual understanding.

The activity also helped the participants develop important skills such as communication, critical thinking, confidence, negotiation, teamwork, and problem-solving. The enthusiastic participation of the students made the event interactive and meaningful.

Our External Judge, Mr. Manoj Kumar, then addressed the gathering with an inspiring speech. He emphasized the importance of peace, dialogue, cooperation, and mutual understanding in society. He encouraged the students to resolve conflicts through communication rather than confrontation and highlighted the significant role of young people in building a peaceful and harmonious society.

Towards the end of the event, the results of the competition were announced and the winners were felicitated with cash prizes. The prizes appreciated the efforts and active participation of the students.

The event concluded on a positive note with the message, “Peace isn’t declared. It’s negotiated.” The Peace Court successfully provided students with an engaging platform to understand different perspectives, practice constructive dialogue, and learn the importance of peaceful conflict resolution.
