The Ministry of Youth Affairs and Sports conducts and manages the National Service Scheme (NSS), which is a public service program. In the year 1969, the National Service Scheme was introduced on the occasion of the birth centenary of Mahatma Gandhi.

During that time, the scheme was launched in 37 universities in India, including 40,000 students to be part of it. The National Service Scheme has a motto that stands for 'Not Me but You'. This motto emphasises the need for selfless service and also represents the spirit of democratic living.

Through NSS, the youth learn to appreciate other people's points of view and to be thoughtful or kind to other beings. All individuals, whether a part of NSS or not, must take an initiative for the betterment of the society and contribute in this regard to their maximum potential.
