

ORIENTATION
(1ST BATCH)

“Perhaps that is where our choice lies—in determining how we will meet the inevitable end of things, and how we will greet each new beginning.”

A new opportunity means a fresh start and all the wonderful possibilities new beginnings bring. Keeping this in mind, Parivartan, The NSS unit of Mata Sundri College for Women organised 'ORIENTATION' for our newly selected batch of this year.

The main objectives of National Service Scheme is to understand the community in which they work, understand themselves in relation to their community, identify the needs and problems of the community and involve them in problem-solving, develop among themselves a sense of social and civic responsibility, utilise their knowledge in finding practical solutions to individual and community problems, develop competence required for group-living and sharing of responsibilities, gain skills in mobilising community participation, acquire leadership qualities and democratic attitudes, develop capacity to meet emergencies and natural disasters and practise national integration and social harmony

The main objectives of National Service Scheme is to make aware about the Rich cultural diversity of India, History of our diversified culture, National pride through knowledge about India, To integrate the nation through social service.

We held recruitment for session 2021-2022 for 2nd year students. The selection was done in 2 rounds. Starting with forms and then personal Interview. They were welcome with a grand event in which our volunteers prepared dance and singing videos for them. Event was organised on 30th of September, 2021. Games like Never have I ever and guess the movie were played to enjoy the session and interact with new volunteers in fun way. New members were very excited to start their journey with National Service Scheme (NSS) and showed their enthusiasm towards the work we will be doing. 36 Volunteers participated in this event.
