

ORIENTATION(OFFLINE)

Sangini Saheli

Parivartan, the NSS unit of Mata Sundri College for Women organised an Orientation with "Sangini Saheli Trust", on 1st October, 2021 to get familiar with the trust, their members and its working. 9 volunteers have visited the college along with NSS Teacher Coordinator -Dr Mamta Chawla mam. There were three members of the trust who came to college for addressing the volunteers.

Priyal Bhardwaj, the founder of Sangini Saheli Trust made the volunteers known to how she started and come up with idea of working towards the weaker section of our society. She shared her experience about the works done by them and highlighted some major points like what are their plans for future events that will be organized by their trust in which our volunteers will get opportunity to contribute something to our society through NSS.

The trust works for poor people who are not aware of the usage of sanitary pads during their menstruation, they make them aware and educate them regarding hygiene that how important is this thing in one's life. They visit various places organise events for the same.

With the help of our volunteers and teacher coordinator they are planning to widen their contributions and want to educate migrant children or economically weaker sections children. These are some things that were discussed in the orientation. Volunteers participated in the discussion of social issues and putted forward their ideas regarding the Solution. Everyone Participated and trust motivated our Volunteers a lot.
