

PREAMBLE READING & QUIZ

Parivartan, the NSS unit of Mata Sundri College for Women participated in the Preamble reading and Quiz organised by the Government of India on the occasion of National Constitution Day which is observed on 26th November every year. 48 volunteers took part in the event.

Volunteers were asked to read preamble in any language along with our honourable President Ram Nath Kovind at 11:00 am. Certificates were issued too by the government. Also, a quiz was organized on the topic- constitutional day. It was quite a thorough and informative event. Constitution of India is the supreme law of India. The document lays down the framework that demarcates fundamental political code, structure, procedures, powers, and duties of government institutions and sets out fundamental rights, directive principles, and the duties of citizens. while The 'Preamble' of the Constitution of India is a brief introductory statement that sets out the guiding purpose and principles of the document, and it indicates the source from which the document which derives its authority, meaning, the people.

The link for both the preamble reading and the quiz were provided by the Unit. On the website, one could read the preamble in any of the India's official languages. And after doing so, the certificate could be generated by entering their personal details.

Similarly, the link for the quiz was provided by the government and it was accessible to all. The quiz was 20 minutes long. After attempting the quiz, the volunteers could generate certificate by entering their details.

For making sure of the participation, the volunteers were asked to upload their certificates through the google drive link provided to them. The volunteers were also asked to click their pictures while reading the preamble and upload it in the same drive link. The volunteers made it a success by participating with zeal.
