

6th Feb'2021

IQAC Report

Department of Psychology, Mata Sundri College,
Delhi University
2019 to till date

Field projects:

In 2019-20, 15 student undertook field projects under the mentorship of different faculty members of the department. During this period, 81 students of the psychology department undertook internship.

Honours and recognition received by teachers:

In 2019, Dr pooja jaggi has been awarded Microsoft Office Specialist in action by Microsoft. Further Dr pooja Wadhawan has been awarded with best paper award by PG government College for girls Chandigarh.

Curriculum Development:

Faculty members have been actively involved in curriculum development. Dr Sarabjit Kaur Saran developed curriculum/course for BA programme/LOCF for psychology of undergraduate courses of Delhi University. Dr Garima Kumar was member of the committee of the courses for psychology, DU. Dr Pooja Wadhawan was member of the Kali curriculum committee for revision of self learning material of psychology course at senior secondary level for national Institute of open schooling.

Faculty Development:

During the period, faculty members of the psychology department attended 34 various faculty development programmes of different durations Ranging from one day to 3 weeks.

Mentoring system for Students:

In 2020, the department initiated peer mentoring program and involved students both from BA hons and BA program. Besides, students are being continuously mentored in practical, projects and field work as a part of graduation curriculum.

Research publications:

During this period various faculty members of the department namely Dr Sarabjit Kaur, Dr Pooja Wadhawan, Dr Garima, Dr Pooja Jaggi and Dr Poonam Vats have published papers in different journals.

Further, Dr Sarabjit Kaur Sran have edited chapters in three different books with three different publishers.

Seminars, Conferences:

All Faculty members have attended various seminars, webinars and conferences held in college and various other institutions. Besides, department regularly organized various talks, quiz, seminars and webinars in counseling, wellbeing and mental health.

Students' progress on to Higher Education:

During the period, as per data collected, 28 students have been admitted into various Masters programs in different institutions of the world including University of Edinburgh, London School of Economics, BHU, DU, TISS etc. (This is also to mention that this is not about all the students who have passed from the department during the period as evidence for all the students could not be gathered.)

Students qualifying in NET, SET or in other Competitive Exams:

As per data collected, one student of the department has qualified NET, two students have qualified GRE and one students has qualified IELTS with 8 bands. (This is also to mention that this is not about all the students who have passed from the department during the period as evidence for all the students could not be gathered.)