

International Workshop The Status of Women in India and Russian Society

The department of Sanskrit organised an International workshop on 2nd March 2020 .The topic was 'The Status of Women in India and Russian Society'. Professor Eugenia Vanina, faculty of "Institute of Oriental studies, Moscow" and Dr Iffat Zarrin Assistant professor Department of Urdu, Mata Sundri College for women, delivered the speech . Dr Harsha Kumari faculty of Sanskrit Department introduced the theme and main guest of the workshop.

Program began with invocation presented by Dr Kuldeep Sehgal faculty of Sanskrit Department.

Dr Asha Rani faculty of Sanskrit Department welcomed the main guest and principal ma'am through a bouquet.

In the beginning Principal ma'am gave a motivational speech on women empowerment. Dr Iffat Zarrin enlightened us that Women Empowerment means power in the hands of women. Further she added that women should be given equal opportunity in every field, irrespective of any discrimination.

Prof Eugenia conveyed that Women Empowerment is the most crucial point to be noted for the overall development of a country. Further she defined the meaning of empowerment:-

Empowerment is the process that creates power in individuals over their own lives, society, and in their communities. People are empowered if they have an access to opportunities without any limitations or restrictions such as in education, profession and in their way of life. Feeling entitled to make your own decisions creates a sense of empowerment.

Some students of Sanskrit Department and Urdu Department also presented their speech and touched the different aspects of women empowerment.

At the end of the function Dr Kuldeep Sehgal, faculty of Sanskrit department gave vote of thanks.
