

'हमारी सांस्कृतिक विरासत' AZADI KA AMRUT MAHOTSAV

Parivartan, The NSS unit of Mata Sundri College for Women's organized 'हमारी सांस्कृतिक विरासत' on 7th of August, 2021. It was celebrated under Azadi ka Amrut Mahotsav to commemorate 75 years of India's independence.

India is a country with a diverse culture and tradition living under one amalgamated roof and each zone of India adding to the diversity of India in its own way. It not only gives India a huge cultural base but also makes it an amalgamation of diverse cultures.

Volunteers were said to dress up in cultural dress of any region and send their pictures. 9 volunteers participated in this event. The regions they represented were- Andhra Pradesh, Mithila, Gujrat, Karnataka, Panjab, Assam, Kashmir etc. They spoke its respective language as well like- Telegu, Punjabi, Gujarati, Hindi, Urdu, Assamese, Kannada. Volunteers dressed up in their colorful costumes and spoke a few sentences on the religion/region they were representing.

The effort and hard work of the volunteers were highly commendable. Dress-up has been making its mark on the Indian public over the past few weeks, with a recent BBC report on the rise of fancy dress video meetings showing that it attempts to lift lockdown spirits of members while having fun. Dressing up in the dresses of different regions of India ignited the sense of unity in diversity of our country.
