

A meeting of the pol. sc. dept. was held on 7th April 2026 at 11:00 A.M.

Agenda :- Discussion on paper presentation and publication

- Lokesh sir emphasized that chapters already written must be presented as part of full paper for publication. The paper should be well structured and high quality.
- It was suggested that paper presenter will be conducted. Selected papers will be considered for publication.
- Members suggested that only those paper which are presented should be eligible for publication.
- A formal notice need to be circulated informing students about paper presentation.
- Online mode has been proposed for conducting paper presentation.
- Certificates will be awarded to students who participate.
- Two parallel session will be organized to finalize presentation.
- It was suggested that final draft of all papers must undergo plagiarism check (below 10%).
- Final dissertation should be range of 120-150 pages.
- Marking scheme need to be discussed.
- Before 20th April, presentation need to be completed.