HPV Awareness Session

Parivartan, the NSS Unit of Mata Sundri College for Women, in collaboration with GAIMS is organising the HPV Awareness Session under the initiative of Kritagya.

Date: 24th November, 2025

Time: 1:30 PM

Venue: Mata Gujar Hall

No. of Volunteers Participated: 33

Programme Officer: Dr. Uzma Nadeem

The NSS Unit of Mata Sundri College for Women, University of Delhi, organized an informative HPV (Human Papillomavirus) Awareness Session in collaboration with GAIMS. The event was conducted with the objective of educating young women about cervical cancer prevention, the importance of HPV vaccination, and healthy lifestyle practices to reduce cancer risk. The session was in alignment with the NSS motto, "Not Me, But You," focusing on empowering students through awareness and community health education.

The session was led by medical experts and representatives from GAIMS, including: Dr. Soumyadeep Dass, Gynecologist and HPV Screening Specialist. The programme aimed to: Spread awareness about HPV infections and cervical cancer. Educate students on the importance of HPV vaccination. Provide information about preventive health screenings. Promote menstrual and reproductive health awareness among young women. Encourage students to become health ambassadors in their communities.

The HPV Awareness Session successfully fulfilled its goal of educating young women about reproductive health and cancer prevention. The collaborative effort of GAIMS and the NSS Unit helped create a meaningful impact on student health education. The NSS unit plans to conduct similar awareness programmes and health camps in the future, ensuring student well-being and promoting community welfare.
