Parivartan, the National Service Scheme (NSS) unit, in collaboration with the Eco Club, organized the Unity and Integrity Festival: A Tribute to the Nation with the objective of promoting national integration, cultural awareness, and the spirit of unity in diversity among students. The programme aimed to foster a sense of patriotism and social harmony through meaningful cultural engagement.

A total of 60 NSS volunteers actively participated in the organization and execution of the event. The festival showcased a range of cultural performances representing the diverse traditions of India. These included classical and folk dance forms such as Bihu, Kathakali, and Bharatanatyam, each depicting culturally significant narratives and traditions rooted in different states of the country. The performances effectively highlighted the richness of India's cultural heritage and its relevance in contemporary society.

The programme also featured patriotic songs, presented in both solo and group performances, which instilled a sense of national pride and collective responsibility among the audience.

Through the medium of dance and music, the event successfully conveyed messages of unity, integrity, and respect for cultural diversity.

The festival served as a valuable learning experience for the volunteers, enhancing their understanding of cultural plurality and the importance of preserving and promoting national unity. By the end of the programme, the NSS volunteers felt motivated and inspired to uphold the ideals of unity, integrity, and social harmony within the campus and beyond.
