Time: 1:30 PM

Venue: College Auditorium

No. of Volunteers Participated: 92

Programme Officer: Dr. Uzma Nadeem

Parivartan, the NSS Unit of Mata Sundri College for Women, celebrated NSS Day on 22nd September 2025 at the Mata Sahib Kaur Auditorium with the presence of distinguished dignitaries. The Chief Guest of the event was Shri Sharwan Ram (Regional Director, NSS, Ministry of Youth Affairs and Sports, Government of India). The Guests of Honour included Dr. Narender Kumar Bishnoi (Programme Coordinator, NSS, University of Delhi), Dr. Gopi Chand Merugu (Associate Professor, Department of Social Work, Jamia Millia Islamia), and Shri Than Singh (Head Constable, Delhi Police, North District).

The programme began with a welcome, Kirtan, and the NSS Anthem, followed by the felicitation of dignitaries by Principal Prof. Harpreet Kaur. Speeches by the Principal and all three guests inspired the volunteers on the values of service, leadership, and community development. The annual NSS Magazine was also launched, and the newly elected Union was inducted.

A special highlight of the celebration was the launch of Project Samarth, an initiative aimed at empowering local communities through financial literacy, digital literacy, cyber security, and legal rights awareness, enabling individuals to lead secure, informed, and self-reliant lives. This initiative reflects the vision of Parivartan to equip communities with practical knowledge while preparing student volunteers as agents of meaningful social change.

The cultural segment included Kathak, Nukkad Natak, dances, songs, and project presentations such as Swachhata and Pathshala, along with vibrant performances by Yukti, Ujjwala, and Mohit Pandey. With the enthusiastic participation of 92 volunteers, the event concluded with a vote of thanks, the National Anthem, and a group photograph. The celebration truly reflected the spirit of NSS "Not Me, But You" and reaffirmed Parivartan's commitment to social responsibility and youth-led change.
