

The Department of History, Mata Sundri College for Women, University of Delhi, under AKS: The History Film Society, organised an engaging documentary screening on The French Revolution. The session was conducted by Dr. Simmi Kapoor Mehta, Programme Coordinator and Teacher-in-Charge, and witnessed enthusiastic participation from students who joined online via Google Meet. The documentary offered valuable insights into one of the most transformative events in world history, sparking curiosity and meaningful discussions among the viewers. It was an enriching experience that combined learning with visual storytelling, helping students connect more deeply with historical events and their lasting impact.
