Report

The school authorities approached Vidhyanjali team of Mata Sundri College to have an Art Integrated Learning (AIL) Workshop for the teachers of the primary and middle school level. The purpose was to enhance their skills of using AIL based pedagogy in mathematics and EVS classrooms.

The workshop was attended by a group of 21 teachers including all the teachers from nursery to class 8th, Sports teacher and art teachers of the school. Principal ma'am started the workshop by a brief introduction of the resource person Ms Divya Sharma (Asst. Prof., MSCW, DU). Afterwards, the resource person oriented the participants towards the concept of Art Integrated Learning as an approach to teaching through relevant examples and activities. Participant teachers designed interesting AIL activities in pairs for different concepts of mathematics and EVS in the workshop. They also presented the activities with their artwork in the end. The session ended with a brief vote of thanks by the workshop coordinator.
